

Editing Your Data and Entering Competitions The Member Log-In Form

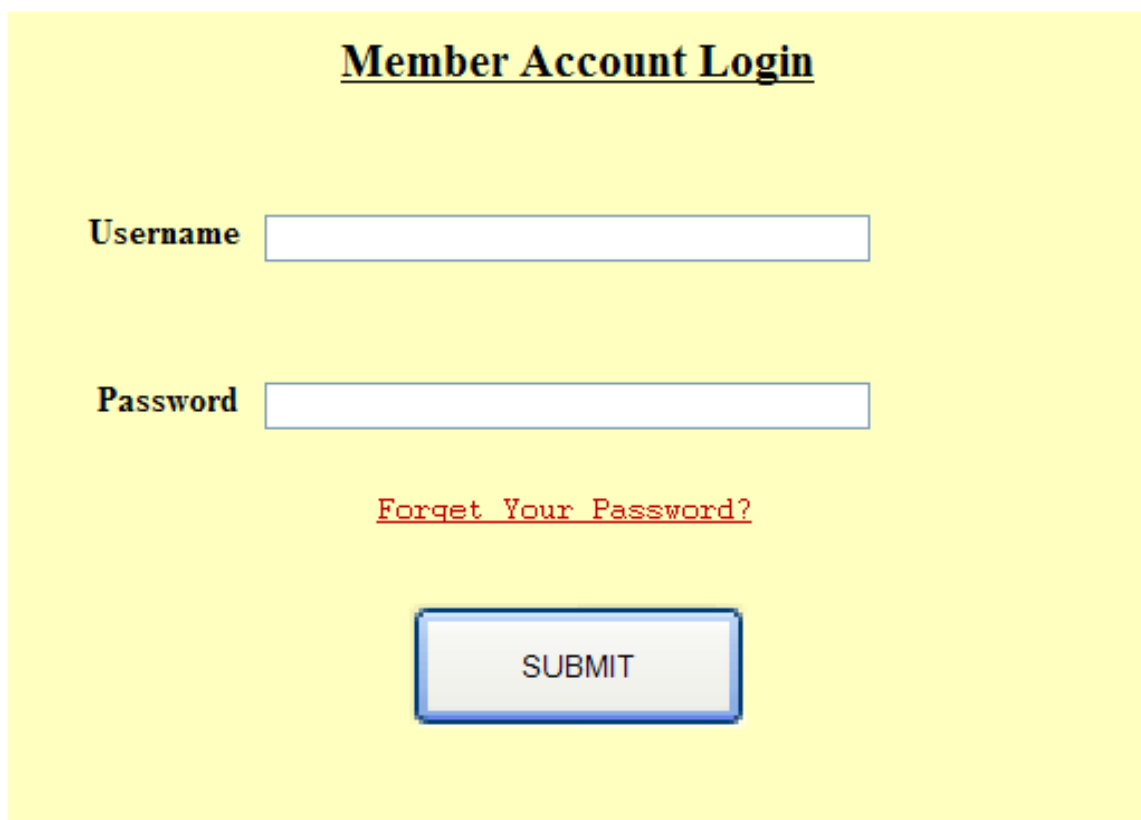

Rev 5-6-08 mk

Once your membership application has been processed to reflect your paid-up status and you have been classified to participate in competitions you can access your data to change your mailing address, telephone number, email address, etc. DO NOT CHANGE YOUR NAME. Your name is used to create your user ID and is maintained as a key to access all competition information. Changing your name will corrupt your database file. Provisions have been made in the software to protect the name field.

This site uses messages that “pop-up” on your monitor to provide reminders and error messages. Some browsers see these as “pop-ups” and have features to dis-allow them in their priority set-up. You may have to “enable pop-ups” for this Website” in your browser to see these messages.

All access is through the Member Log-in Form:

c. NAMING CONVENTION FOR PROJECTED IMAGES

The Naming Convention has gone through a revision and has been simplified to allow you to enter the title of the image only. If you would like to include your name to help identify your images, should a problem exist, we recommend you use your user ID and separate it from the title by using a hyphen (or dash “-“ as it is frequently called).

Image title; Any name but 36 characters Max and none of the following characters \ / : * ? “ < > . In general, we recommend you AVOID ALL special characters in your title.

Some software programs designed to resize and name for the Web will truncate a file name to as little as 21 Characters. You should check your file name to assure the entire desired name is correctly stored along with your image when resizing.

1- FORMAT REQUIRED FOR PROJECTED IMAGES

- a. All images must be .JPG images
- b. All images must be sized to a maximum dimension (horizontal or vertical) of 750 pixels. Exceeding this will result in your images being cut-off (the projector will not be able to handle larger images)
 - i. This is very important and a method to Resize Your Images has been published in the February 2008 Newsletter.

<http://www.huntingtoncameraclub.org/PDFfiles/HCC%20Newsletter%20feb%202008.pdf>

- iii. After resizing your images for a digital projected competition put them in a folder that you can readily locate, and name them using the naming convention above.
 - i. The form has space for two entries for the month
 - ii. The make-up space is a place holder to allow entries for those months that you had not competed (a maximum of three make-ups are permitted per year, but only one (1) in any month in a category)
 - iii. Click the browse drop-down menu and your computer browser window appears. Locate the image you want to submit, highlight, by clicking it and then select it by clicking OPEN.
 - iv. Do the same for Image #2 and the make-up
 1. At any time in the future before competition is closed for that month you can repeat the process to replace your image with a different one. Your original entry will appear in bold letters above the selection window.
